

We convert heat into electricity!

To strengthen our team we are looking for a

Electrician / switch cabinet builder (m/f/d)

for the following tasks full-time, 38.5 hrs/week:

- » Independent assembly and wiring of switch cabinets, control systems and electrical electrical assemblies according to specified electrical diagrams
- » Functional testing, measurement and logging of electrical switchgear
- » Preparation of cables and plug connections
- » Support with commissioning and establishing electrical operational safety

You offer:

- » Completed vocational training in the field of electrical engineering, mechatronics or similar specialisation (apprenticeship, technical college, HTL)
- » Professional experience in control cabinet and control system construction is an advantage
- » Ability to read circuit diagrams and detailed plans, manual dexterity and technical understanding
- » Independent, precise and reliable way of working
- » Good written and spoken German skills
- » Enjoyment of further training
- » Ability to work in a team
- » High level of quality awareness

We offer above-average pay!

The minimum basic salary in utilisation group III after 10 years of service is € 3,470.85.
Willingness to overpay depending on qualifications and experience.

Please send your application documents including CV, photo and references to:

By e-mail tanja.puttinger@frauscher-motors.com

By post: Frauscher Motors GmbH | Gewerbestraße 7 | 4774 St. Marienkirchen bei Schärding